CIRCULAR, No. 958.

WAR OFFICE,
1st January, 1846.

SIR,

I HAVE great pleasure in communicating to you a further proof of Her Majesty's gracious desire to afford increased advantages, present and prospective, to those Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers whose military career shall be honorably marked by distinguished or meritorious service, by obedience to their Officers, and by a strict attention to their military duties.

I have accordingly the honor to enclose a copy of Her Majesty's Warrant granting to Non-commissioned Officers, who for their exemplary conduct may be selected for Commissions in the Army, allowances in aid of their outfit; giving also permanent rewards as annuities to Non-commissioned Officers of distinguished or meritorious service, and gratuities to Non-commissioned Officers of long service and good conduct,—and affording to all Soldiers greater facilities for attaining by good conduct honorable distinctions, and additions to their pay.

In communicating to the Men of the Regiment under your command this instance of Her Majesty's gracious consideration for their welfare, you will be pleased to impress upon them the advantage, as well as distinction, which the well conducted Men will derive by accumulating this large increase to their Pay, as a means of adding to their comforts after the close of their military service; and you will explain to them that the Regimental Savings Bank, of the benefits of which many Regiments have extensively availed themselves, afford great facility for so doing, with the largest profit, and greatest security.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient humble Servant,

SIDNEY HERBERT.

Officer commanding

REWARDS FOR MERITORIOUS SERVICE, AND FOR GOOD CONDUCT OF NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS.

Dated 19th December, 1845.

VICTORIA R.

WE deem it expedient to afford a greater encouragement to the Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers of our Army who may have distinguished themselves, or who may have given good, faithful, and efficient service.

With the view, therefore, of rewarding distinguished or meritorious service, and of promoting good conduct in Our Army, Our will and pleasure is,

1. That, whenever we shall sanction the grant of a Commission without purchase to a Non-Commissioned Officer, selected and recommended for this distinction by our Commander-in-Chief, there shall be granted to such Non-Commissioned Officer, in aid of an outfit as a Commissioned Officer, a sum of 150*l.*, if appointed to a Cavalry Regiment; and of 100*l.*, if appointed to an Infantry Regiment.

2. It is Our further will and pleasure, that a sum not exceeding 2000*l.* a year be distributed, for the purpose of granting Annuities, as rewards for distinguished or meritorious service, to Serjeants who are now, or who may be hereafter in the Service, either while serving or after discharge with or without pension, in sums not exceeding 20*l.*, which may be held during service and together with pension.

3. The Serjeants selected for this honorary distinction, to be entitled to receive and wear a Silver Medal, having on one side Our effigy, and on the other, the words "For Meritorious Service," and the name and Regiment of the Serjeant, with the date of its grant.

4. It shall rest with our Commander-in-Chief, to select the individuals whom he may recommend to us for this honourable mark of Our approbation.

5. With the view of further rewarding meritorious Soldiers when discharged, and of encouraging good conduct in others while serving, We are pleased to alter the Warrants of Our late Royal Uncles, dated the 14th November, 1829, and 7th February, 1833, and to direct, that a Gratuity in addition to the ordinary Pension may be granted upon discharge to certain men, who shall have served 21 years in the Infantry, or 24 years in the Cavalry.

The Gratuity to a Serjeant who shall have served 10 years as such, shall be	15	0	0
To a Corporal who shall have served seven years as such	10	0	0
To a private	5	0	0

6. The Commanding Officer of every regiment may annually recommend such individuals while serving, as he shall consider will be best entitled to this Gratuity when discharged, provided the amount recommended in any one year does not exceed 30*l.* for a regiment of an establishment of 700 rank and file and upwards, and 20*l.* for a regiment of a lower establishment than 700 rank and file.

7. The men to be recommended, must have completed 21 years of actual service in the Cavalry, and 24 years of actual service in the Infantry ;— have never been convicted by a Court-Martial, and must have borne an irreproachable character ;—or, if not coming strictly within these latter conditions, must have particularly distinguished themselves by gallantry and zeal in Our Service.

8. Soldiers recommended to receive upon their discharge the Gratuity for good conduct, shall, upon being approved by the Commander-in-Chief, be entitled to wear a silver Medal, having on one side the words, " For Long Service and Good Conduct," and on the other side in relief the Royal Arms, with the name and rank of the Soldier. This Medal will be delivered to the Soldier on parade by the Commanding Officer of the regiment, and shall be worn by him during the remainder of his service.

9. The year of the Soldier's discharge shall also be inscribed on the Medal which will be returned to him with the parchment Certificate of Discharge, on which the grant will be recorded, as well as in the Regimental Orders, and in the record of Soldiers' Services.

10. If circumstances should prevent the discharged Soldier from receiving the Medal at the regiment, it will be delivered to him through the Adjutant-General at the Board of the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital.

11. These Gratuities will be paid under the directions of the Secretary at War, to whom the Commander-in-Chief will notify the individuals selected previously to their discharge; the names and services of the individuals receiving the Gratuity, shall be published in the Regimental Orders, and the Secretary of War will notify them to the parishes to which the men belong.

12. Whereas it has been represented to Us, that it would materially tend to the encouragement of good conduct in the Army, if the reward to the well-conducted soldier were attainable after shorter periods of service than those stipulated by Our Warrant of the 9th May, 1839; Our will and pleasure is, that all Corporals, Trumpeters, Drummers, Fifers, Buglers, and Private Soldiers, enlisted or re-enlisted into Our Service on or after the 1st day of September 1836, shall have no claim to additional pay after any period of service, but that a reward of additional pay for good conduct, shall be granted to such Soldiers under the following Rules, which shall take effect from and after the 1st of January, 1846 :—

13. Soldiers who shall have completed five years' service, shall be entitled to claim 1*d.* a day, and to wear a distinguishing mark, provided their names shall not have been entered in the Regimental Defaulters' Book for at least two years immediately preceding such claim.

14. Soldiers who shall have completed 10 years' service shall be entitled to claim a further reward of 1*d.* a day, and to wear two distinguishing marks, provided they shall have been uninterruptedly in the enjoyment of the 1*d.* a day for at least two years immediately preceding such further claim.

15. Soldiers who shall have completed 15 years' service shall be entitled to claim a further reward of 1*l.* a day, and to wear three distinguishing marks, provided they shall have been uninterruptedly in the enjoyment of the 2*d.* a day for two years immediately preceding their claim to the third penny.

16. Soldiers who shall have completed 20 years' service shall be entitled to claim a further reward of 1*d.* a day, and to wear four distinguishing marks, provided they shall have been uninterruptedly in the enjoyment of the 3d. a day for two years immediately preceding their claim to the fourth penny.

17. Soldiers who shall have completed 25 years' service, shall be entitled to claim a further reward of 1d. a day, and to wear five distinguishing marks, provided they shall have been uninterruptedly in the enjoyment of the 4d. a day for two years preceding their claim to the fifth penny.

18. Soldiers who shall have completed 30 years' service, shall be entitled to claim a further reward of 1d. a day, and to wear six distinguishing marks, provided they shall have been uninterruptedly in the enjoyment of the 5d. a day for two years immediately preceding their claim to the sixth penny.

19. As a further reward of continuous good conduct, soldiers who shall have completed 18 years' service, without having their names entered in the Regimental Defaulters' Book for the last 16 years, shall be allowed the advantage of the good-conduct reward hereby granted after 20, 25, and 30 years' of actual service, two years earlier, that is to say, after 18, 23, and 28 years' actual service.

20. The service to entitle soldiers to the rewards granted by this Warrant after each period of five years, must be service in the ranks, continually under the vigilant eye of discipline, in the execution of the ordinary duties of a soldier in barracks or in quarters.

21. Those soldiers, who accept employments which, by keeping them more out of the control of discipline, expose them to a less chance of being recorded in the Regimental Defaulters' Book, and give them greater facilities of acquiring and retaining the reward for good conduct, can only be allowed to receive good-conduct pay, and the honourable distinctions, and addition to pension on discharge, after the periods of service prescribed in our Warrant of the 9th May, 1839, except with the special sanction of our Secretary at War.

22. Soldiers, who by their good conduct shall have obtained one or more distinguishing marks, shall be entitled to have the full rate of that good-conduct pay of which they shall have been in uninterrupted possession for three years immediately preceding their discharge added to the rate of pension, whether temporary or permanent, to which they may have a right under the provisions of the Warrant of Our late Royal Uncle, dated the 7th February, 1833.

23. Soldiers who have been in the possession of some one or other of the rates of good-conduct pay for four years uninterruptedly, but who have only been in possession of either of the higher rates for some period not less than two years immediately preceding their discharge, shall be entitled, if discharged with two distinguishing marks, to an addition of $1\frac{1}{2}d.$; if discharged with three distinguishing marks, to an addition of $2\frac{1}{2}d.$; if discharged with four distinguishing marks, to an addition of $3\frac{1}{2}d.$; if discharged with five distinguishing marks, to an addition of $4\frac{1}{2}d.$; and if discharged with six distinguishing marks, to an addition of $5\frac{1}{2}d.$; as an augmentation of the pension to which their services will entitle them under the warrant of the 7th February, 1833.

24. Soldiers who shall have been in the uninterrupted possession of good-conduct pay for at least three years immediately preceding their discharge for disability, or by reduction, and who shall not have acquired claims to pension, or who shall be entitled only to temporary or conditional pensions, shall have their names registered at Chelsea Hospital; and upon their attaining 60 years of age shall receive, as a reward for their former good conduct, a pension of 4*d.* a day if discharged with one distinguishing mark, and of 5*d.* a day if discharged after having been twelve months in possession of two distinguishing marks; and of 6*d.* a day if discharged in possession of three distinguishing marks; and this reward for former good conduct shall also be extended to soldiers who may be permitted to obtain free discharge at their own request, as an indulgence, after certain periods of service, as described in the 28th Article of this Warrant. Those soldiers now in our service, who accept the employments referred to in the 21st Article of this Warrant, shall have their names registered at Chelsea, under the conditions of the Warrant of the 9th of May, 1839; but all men enlisted after the date of this Warrant, who may accept such employments, shall only be allowed to register for a deferred pension of 4*d.* a day, if discharged with one distinguishing mark; of 5*d.* a day, if discharged after having been in possession of two distinguishing marks for twelve months, and of 6*d.* a day, after having been for two years in possession of two distinguishing marks.

25. The service requisite to entitle men to the distinctions and rewards granted by this Warrant may include former service in all ranks after the age of eighteen.

26. Men discharged on reduction, or for disability, and re-enlisting within three years after the date of their discharge may reckon their former service, provided they shall declare such former service at the time of re-enlistment; but men purchasing their discharges, or receiving free discharges, shall not reckon former service.

27. The forfeiture of service now attaching to individuals in respect of additional pay, in consequence of the sentence of a Court-Martial, or of conviction for desertion, will equally attach to them in respect of good-conduct pay.

28. Soldiers of good conduct, who may be permitted to purchase or to obtain free discharges at their own request, shall be allowed free discharges upon the following terms, instead of those prescribed by the Royal Warrant of the 14th November, 1829, and by His late Majesty's Warrant of the 7th February, 1833; but the conditions, limitations, and regulations, for granting discharges by indulgence, laid down in the said Warrants, shall, in the cases of all other soldiers, remain in full force.

After 16 years' actual service, with two distinguish- ing marks, having possessed the second at least 12 months

29. Soldiers enlisting since the 1st March, 1833, who are in the enjoyment of two or more distinguishing marks, and of the good-conduct pay, may obtain permanent pension as an indulgence, at the rate fixed in the Warrant of 7th February, 1833, two years earlier than other men who have not earned this distinction, and may further receive the same amount of good-conduct pay which would have been added to their ordinary pension, under the rules laid down in this Warrant, if they had been discharged as unfit for further service or by reduction.

30. As it is Our will and pleasure that this reward shall be strictly an honourable distinction, to be conferred only upon the well-conducted soldier, the Commanding Officers of Regiments are strictly enjoined to enter in the Regimental Defaulters' Book the name of every soldier, who, in consequence of misconduct, shall have been subjected to any punishment beyond six days' drill, or seven days' confinement to barracks, and the commission of every offence, which shall impose upon the Commanding Officer the necessity of recording the soldier's name in the Regimental Defaulters' Book, shall render the man ineligible for this reward for two years from that date, and, if he be already in possession of this distinction, shall deprive him of his distinguishing mark and good-conduct pay for one year; and a second recorded offence within twelve months shall render two years of uninterrupted good conduct necessary to obtain a restoration of such reward.

31. The Soldier having two or more distinguishing marks shall, in like manner, forfeit one of such marks, and the good-conduct pay allowed with it, for one year for each offence; and if he shall forfeit all his distinguishing marks and good-conduct pay, and before restoration of any one shall be recorded for a fresh offence, he shall forfeit all claim in consequence of his previous good conduct, and shall only be entitled to obtain a restoration of his honourable distinctions by subsequently serving, with uninterrupted good conduct, for two years to obtain one distinguishing mark, for four years to obtain two distinguishing marks, for six years to obtain three distinguishing marks, for eight years to obtain four distinguishing marks, for ten years to obtain five distinguishing marks, and for twelve years to obtain six distinguishing marks.

32. Any Soldier who, by having been recorded in the Regimental Defaulters' Book, shall have been adjudged to have been guilty of an offence by which he is to forfeit the whole or a part of his reward for previous good conduct, shall, if he denies the commission of such offence, have the right of appeal to a Court-Martial.

33. A Soldier may, for a first offence of a serious nature, be adjudged, by the sentence of a Court-Martial, to forfeit all or any part of the advantages he had derived from his previous good conduct, either absolutely or for any period not less than eighteen months, according to the circumstances which shall have appeared in evidence.

34. The distinction and the rewards for good conduct, granted by this Warrant do not extend to Serjeants and other Non-Commissioned Officers above the rank of Corporal, and they will not be allowed, while serving, any addition to their established pay, but if permitted to purchase their discharges, or to obtain free discharges at their own request, they will be admitted to the benefits of Article 28th of this Warrant; and if discharged to pension, they may, for peculiarly good conduct, on the special recommendation of our General Commanding-in-Chief, and by the consent of Our Secretary at War, communicated to the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, be allowed additions of 1*d.*, 2*d.*, 3*d.*, 4*d.*, 5*d.* or 6*d.* a day to their pensions; provided that the aggregate pension shall in no case exceed, for a Serjeant, 1*s.* 10*d.*, for a Quarter-Master-Serjeant, 2*s.* 1*d.*, and for a Serjeant-Major, 2*s.* 4*d.* a day.

35. All Soldiers now in Our Service, who enlisted since the 1st March, 1833, but before 1st September, 1836, shall have the option of relinquishing all right to the additional pay of 2*d.* a day to which they are now entitled after the completion of 14 years' Infantry, or of 17 years' Cavalry service, and shall then be entitled, by their good conduct, to all the advantages both of good-conduct pay while serving, of pension on discharge, and of deferred pension, which are hereinbefore granted to Soldiers enlisted on or after 1st September, 1836.

36. All Soldiers now serving, who enlisted on or before the 1st March, 1833, shall, by relinquishing their right to additional pay for length of service, be entitled to claim all the advantages of good-conduct pay while serving, which are hereby granted; but as the Warrants which were in force at the time of their original enlistment gave them a right to higher rates of pension on discharge than those which are to be granted to men enlisted after the 1st March, 1833, they will not be entitled to have their good-conduct pay added to their pensions on discharge.

37. In special cases, however, of men enlisted on or before the 1st March, 1833, who, by their good conduct, have obtained one or more distinguishing marks, and who, after short service, may be discharged for disabilities, or by reduction, either without pension or with temporary, or conditional, or permanent pensions, (not exceeding those granted for similar disabilities and services under the Warrant of the 7th February, 1833,) the good-conduct pay may, by the consent of Our Secretary at War, be added to their pensions; and such men, if not placed upon permanent pensions, may be registered at Chelsea for the deferred pension, under the same Rules as the men enlisted after the 1st March, 1833.

38. All Soldiers now serving, who enlisted on or before the 1st September, 1836, and who have completed 20, 25, or 30 years' service, may, on relinquishing their right to additional pay, receive respectively 4*d.* 5*d.* or 6*d.* a day good conduct pay, provided their names shall not have been entered in the Regimental Defaulters' Book immediately preceding the exchange, for the several periods prescribed by this Warrant.

39. Soldiers who have completed 15 years' service may, on relinquishing their right to additional pay, receive 3*d.* per diem good-conduct pay, provided their names shall not have been entered in the Regimental Defaulters' Book for at least six years immediately preceding the exchange,

40. Soldiers of less than 15 years' service, already in the receipt of additional pay, at 2*d.* a day, for length of service, may, on relinquishing their right to additional pay, continue to receive the same amount as good-conduct pay, provided their names shall not have been entered in the Regimental Defaulters' Book for at least four years immediately preceding the exchange.

41. Soldiers who are already in the receipt of additional pay of 1*d.* a day for length of service, may, on relinquishing their right to additional pay, continue to receive the same amount as good-conduct pay, provided their names shall not have been entered in the Regimental Defaulters' Book for at least two years immediately preceding the exchange.

42. Soldiers not yet in the receipt of additional pay for length of service, may, by relinquishing their right to the same, receive good-conduct pay, on completing the respective periods of 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, and 30 years, provided their names shall not have been entered in the Regimental Defaulters' Book—in the first case, for at least two years; in the second case for at least four years; in the third case, for at least six years; in the fourth case, for at least eight years; in the fifth case, for at least ten years; and in the last case, for at least twelve years, immediately preceding.

43. In establishing their claims to the good-conduct pay, soldiers who were present at the Battle of Waterloo, shall be allowed to reckon two years in addition to their actual service, and those who were enlisted before the 1st December, 1829, shall be allowed to reckon three years for two of actual service, after the age of 18, in the East and West Indies (in other than West India regiments), but in claiming their discharge under the 28th Article, actual service only will be reckoned.

44. Soldiers enlisted before the 1st September, 1836, shall be entitled to distinguishing marks, whether they accept or not the option of relinquishing additional pay for good-conduct pay, and they shall be entitled to the same addition to their pensions for the number of distinguishing marks they may severally possess at the period of their discharge, as is allowed to men in receipt of good-conduct pay.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this 19th day of December, 1845, in the ninth year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,

SIDNEY HERBERT.

HORSE GUARDS, 5th May, 1846.

MEMORANDUM.

A Second Lieutenant Colonel having been appointed to all Regiments having Reserve Battalions, it has been deemed expedient to modify the Regulations under which the Command of these Battalions has hitherto been administered, and to place them on a footing similar, in most respects, to the regular Second Battalions of particular Corps, with a view to rendering them more efficient for separate service.

1.—The Second Lieutenant Colonel will assume the Command of the Reserve Battalion, unless otherwise specially ordered, and on its first formation he will be assisted by the junior Major, but afterwards the Lieutenant Colonel alone will be liable to be transferred to the first Battalion, on the removal by Promotion, or otherwise, of his superior.

2.—All the other Officers will continue to serve in the Battalion to which they shall have been originally posted, until by attaining a superior Rank, they may happen to fall into vacancies in the other.

3.—The Second Lieutenant Colonel will be held responsible, in all respects, for the discipline and interior economy of the Reserve Battalion, which, however, must be conducted according to the system previously established in the Regiment; he is to have the selection and appointment of his own Non-Commissioned Officers, and is not to be interfered with in the administration and exercise of his command by the Senior Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment, whose authority will, henceforth, be limited to the Battalion under his immediate Command.

4.—The Subscriptions on appointment or promotion towards defraying the expenses of the Regimental Band, will continue uniform throughout the Regiment, but the annual contribution towards its support will be limited, in Reserve Battalions, to six days' pay from each officer.

5.—The Regimental Depôt will remain, as hitherto, common to both Battalions, but, in order to secure an equitable distribution of the men, and to provide for the equal efficiency of the whole Corps, the Commandant of the Depôt Battalion is not to leave the selection to the Captains in charge of particular Depôts, but will be careful to send out the Drafts as they may be required, according to the date of Enlistment of the Recruits, provided they are, in all respects, fit for service.

6.—The same rule will be followed on the arrival of the Drafts at a Foreign Station, where Two Battalions of the same Corps may happen to be serving together, when the Men will be posted to Battalions from the Roster, without selection, and without reference to character, stature, or personal appearance.

7.—All the other Regulations with respect to the management of these Battalions are to continue in force as heretofore.

By Command of Field Marshal The Duke of Wellington, Commander in Chief.

JOHN MACDONALD,
Adjut. General.
